

Australasian Law Teachers Association Conference 2017

Date: 5-8 July 2017 Venue: University of South Australia School of Law

The Law School at UniSA is proud to be hosting the annual conference of the Australasian Law Teachers Association (ALTA) in July 2017. The ALTA conference will bring together lawyers from Australasia and around the world and from the four key legal sectors—academia, the public sector, non-government organisations and the private sector.

Together we will explore the theme: Law on the line. There are a number of issues that immediately come to mind in this regard. Student numbers continue to grow, while legal employment opportunities plummet. Digital disruption, in both practice and education, is changing both how we deliver our services and how we conceive of the very raison d'être of such delivery. Civil litigation is suffering a slow strangulation, legal aid is evaporating and accessibility is diminishing. Judges are pilloried in the media. Fundamental legal rights are being abandoned in the name of political expediency. The globalisation of legal practice has begun to undermine the protected jurisdiction of domestic professional services.

The impact of each of these factors is likely to be profound. Change, in all its chaotic grandeur, is in the air, with weighty implications. What does this mean for the teaching and practice of the law? Alongside keynote plenary events led by world-renowned speakers, parallel sessions will enable established academics as well as new and emerging scholars to present their work and to meet and engage with speakers and participants. Some of the parallel sessions will be allocated to interest groups, allowing them to convene and reflect on the future direction of their particular area of specialisation, while others will be organised according to conference thematic streams.

Sponsorship of this important event will provide excellent promotional and networking opportunities for your company/organisation and we are pleased to offer a range of sponsorship packages. Let me invite you to consider selecting one that best suits your purposes and interests.
